

Study Rooms

Policy Statement

Sterling Municipal Library has seven study rooms that may be used by patrons as quiet places to study, research, or read.

Rules

1. Study rooms can only be reserved by library staff who need space to conduct library business and by tutors who are active participants in the Library's former Literacy Program. Other patrons may utilize the rooms based on availability.
2. For study rooms A-D and F, a maximum of five individuals may be in a study room at one time. Study room E accommodates a maximum of two individuals. Study room G can be utilized by no more than 8 individuals.
3. Study rooms are checked-out for a period of two hours. Individuals or groups may request additional time if there are no other patrons waiting.
4. The use of the Literacy computers located in the study rooms' steel cabinets (Rooms A-D) is restricted to students who have been trained by library staff to use the literacy software. Circulation Staff will know if students have been trained if there is a "~" symbol at the end of their name in the computer database.
5. Patrons using the study rooms must adhere to the Library's Code of Conduct.
6. Study rooms are available only during regular Library hours.
