CRISIS INTERVENTION TRAINING #1850

June 27- July 1, 2022

Baytown Police Academy
203 E. Wye Drive
Baytown, TX 77521

With increasing frequency, law enforcement is being called upon to respond to individuals in mental health crises. The underlying elements behind the majority of mental illness-related behavior are generally not criminal or malicious in nature. It is necessary for law enforcement personnel to understand mental illness, the various tactics and techniques that have been proven to work most effectively when responding to individuals in these situations. These tactics and techniques are different than those routinely taught to officers to manage conflict. Students can use the information presented in this course to build on their communication skills and implementing effective strategies can help keep the officer and the public safe.

Class size is limited to 20 students.

The former 16-hour Crisis Intervention Training ceased to exist on April 1, 2018. For officers licensed after April 1, 2018, who have not had this new 40 hour Crisis Intervention Training as part of their BPOC, this is a required course and must be taken within two years of license issuance. This course is also mandatory for
